

Emiel Durbal

Hi, my name is Emiel and I am 16. I live in High Barnet, London UK in a nuclear household with my mother and younger brother. My mother is originally from Sri Lanka and my father is from Guyana, South America. My favourite sports include tennis and rugby. I listen to mostly summer house music because it is chilled and perfect in the background whilst browsing the internet. My favourite artists/bands consist of Coldplay, Mumford and Sons, Kygo, Major Lazer etc. I am a small time DJ and make music when I have time, add me on Snapchat: emieliod ;) I am a fan of the marvel cinematic universe and I enjoy watching films such as Avengers, X Men and the Captain America films. My A-level subjects are Photography, Food technology, Geography and ICT. In 2012 I was featured on Junior Masterchef and was in the top 32 young chefs in the UK which was one of my greatest achievements. In the future I aspire to become a Marine Biologist or a Graphic Designer. I own a graphic design company called EDesigns which I am very proud of and it is becoming increasingly popular on the internet. I have worked with famous YouTubers all across the world. I have been to Venice, Italy a few years ago which was very beautiful! I would like to travel to South America and visit Peru, Bolivia and Brazil. I like because there is a lot of opportunity which will be beneficial for my future.
